This was the statement made Monday by Miss Belle Bennett of Richmond, Ky., president of the women's board of home missions of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, at Savannah. This goes further than Miss Bennett's demand that Methodist women be given all rights of laity in the church.

The committee on memorial framed a memorial to be presented to the next general conference of the church petitioning the granting of full rights of the laity to the women of the church. The question of the broadening of women's lives through giving them added responsibilities is easily the most talked about subject
